Intel Drop #62

The following was collated from intel sent to our team from Gideon. As always, all intel sent by Gideon is edited by Michael for clarity and for obfuscation purposes (see: Stylometry):

Bill: Before we start, I want to direct readers to my Twitter account where I've posted a lot of confirmations and news. It's hard to keep up, there's lots I haven't even posted, but everything is being confirmed.

Gideon: "More will come because we are nearing the end stage."

Bill: I posted on my Twitter that the ECB says there's going to be "limits" on what you can have of this new CBDC. Limits on your money, how much you can have, think of it. It's exactly as we've said, now the cabal is saying it.

Gideon: "It is Obsidian, certainly not the classified portions, but they have given the public some of what to expect."

Bill: Political events seem more chaotic than normal, too, and the markets are reacting wildly, Trump says this or that, they go up or down. It's like we're de-coupling from

Gideon: "The cabal's A.I. adjusts news and narratives to create a global, mass brainwashing campaign that is almost impossible to perceive.

The A.I. also gives comfort to a certain percentage who are awake, and to Trump voters. To fall prey to these deceptions is to fall prey to the Devil's own handiwork."

Bill: I see it all the time. Trump dominates a lot of it, I notice.

Gideon: "He is a key distraction. The more the world focuses on Trump, the less they focus on the things the cabal is doing."

Bill: I'm not going too focus much on politics tonight, because as you say, most of it's a distraction, but I wanted to mention Trump's cozy relationship with Saudi Arabia, this weird distancing happening between Trump and Netanyahu, and one thing about Elon Musk. I think they're important enough.

Gideon: "Of course, please proceed."

Bill: First, do people not realize that Saudi Arabia is a country that has basically no freedom and is a police state? Why is America and Trump so seemingly happy about them, like they're best friends?

Gideon: "Saudi Arabia is an oppressive monarchy and aligned entirely with cabal goals, and Agenda 2030. Of note is The Line, a model city for the cabal that will integrate all of their transhumanist goals. Trump's close alignment with the country should concern anyone with a moral compass, and it should give you a sense that he does not have one."

Bill: There's been all this really bizarre news that Trump and Netanyahu are at odds. Can you comment on that?

Gideon: "It is entirely staged. It is serving a narrative. I am surprised at the deftness and complexity of it, how it has been done. The A.I. is creating political stagecraft in a way that is far more clever and deceptive than anything we ever saw from P.R. professionals of prior Administrations."

Bill: What's the end goal?

Gideon: "The Jews want to bring about their own prophecy, their Moshiach and a rebuilding of the Third Temple, and Trump's job is to fulfill that.

The cabal itself exists on a plane of control beyond all of that, though. They direct the production, they do not actually believe in or adhere to the religions aspects of it, though many of their puppets do."

Bill: I'm seeing people just completely falling for it. Anti-Israel sentiment is at an all time high, so people seem thrilled with Trump over this, thrilled he might not like Netanyahu or do Israel's bidding, thrilled he might recognize a Palestinian state. You're certain it's Kayfabe, scripted?

Gideon: "Without any doubt it is. There is absolutely zero distance between Trump and Zionism or Israel. Zero. You are watching a show.

If Trump were truly serious, truly no longer under the control of the cabal, you would see drastic measures.

You would see all Israeli dual citizens who work in the Federal government immediately fired and deported, which would include many Trump has actually hired himself. You would see all Congresspeople under the influence of AIPAC immediately arrested, which would be most of Congress.

He would put the country under a state of national emergency due to foreign infiltration by an enemy, Israel, because it is that serious of a matter and probably have non-compromised parts of the military, if any exist, line the streets of Washington D.C. and shut down the government until it is fully purged.

He would open up investigations into 9/11 and other Israeli crimes. He would stop all aid to Israel. He would cease diplomatic relations with states that support Israel, like the U.K. You would see war declared against Israel.

Arguably, a President totally and utterly divested from the cabal might even use nuclear or exotic weapons to wipe out cabal enclaves in Israel, Switzerland and so on. The situation is that serious and extreme measures would need to be taken.

None of that has been done or will be done. What is being done are false narratives that tell a false story so the public will believe something, believe Trump is his own man in some way and distancing himself and the U.S. from the very unpopular regime in Tel Aviv, which can be changed at any time and may be changed soon. The strategy is brilliant but completely deceptive."

Billl: Perfectly explained. Ok, next question. Elon was just there in Saudi Arabia at conference and literally said universal basic income is coming, then he called it "universal high income," suggesting people could be wealthy on UBI, or Obsidian, because A.I. and robots will run the world. I thought it was some deep fake, but it looks like he really said this.

Gideon: "It aligns with a suspicion our whistle blowers have had that Common status in Obsidian will have many pathways for upgrading the status or improving it. Now, Common status people cannot become Sovereign, but they can gain more benefits by complying with cabal agendas, such as using Neuralink, sending their children to A.I.-run schools and taking vaccines. It is possible he is referencing this, as he would know."

Bill: For Musk to actually say that, to me, that's significant. He knows what's coming, and it does sound to me we're looking at 2030 as a future with robots running things and people basically 'hooked up' to their A.I. systems. It's sickening.

Gideon: "That is part of the end goal."

Bill: Ok, I want spend most of this conversation on the cabal's hierarchy, partly because of some things your guide said. She said our team is in a decent position because some of our team members have moved up the tier status ranks. Maybe you can explain how the cabal really works behind the scenes in this way.

Gideon: "Yes, it is some good news we have had. She said because some of our team is at least within the lower tier of the medium ranks, having in the area of $25 Million USDR and up, some of us may have potential to exert influence against the cabal from our positions."

Bill: You told me she's an expert on how the cabal works, but she didn't have some of the exact details of the hierarchy within Obsidian until the whistle blowers shared this information since it's classified. Is that right?

Gideon: "Yes, while she has tremendous knowledge of the cabal's history, Obsidian is drastically changing the cabal's network, hierarchy and operational structure going forward, because it is almost entirely based on USDR. This is new to her, and it is new to many researchers who have knowledge of the cabal, if they have learned about what is coming.

It should be noted USDR is not just a digital currency, it carries with it, for the cabal, the representation of the dissolution of fiat and the fiat they have gained through ill-gotten means. That is its intrinsic value, in part. That is why we have seen so many scams, so many government boondoggles in which fiat has been seemingly wasted or lost but instead was quietly funneled into USDR. It means something to the cabal to gain USDR this way."

Bill: I saw Trump's ridiculous crypto coin resulted in losses for 750,000 holders but only about 50 actually made money on it, millions on it. This must be an example of how the cabal is tainting fiat in some way before it's transferred into USDR.

Gideon: "It is possibly the perfect example. Only Trump's inner circle made money on Trump coin. It is an stunning level of fraud. Of course, it is all done with the purpose so they can buy even more USDR with fiat, and the crypto itself is actually fiat, not crypto; its value is gauged in fiat.

What we are learning about some of the deeper workings of Obsidian is that when fiat is gained in some ill-gotten way, the cabal is adding something to their tier, or rank. Unfortunately, this part of Obsidian is not completely available to the whistle blowers, they have only seen parts of it. So, they do not know exactly how it works, but they strongly suspect an Obsidian account is given higher status or power in some way if the fiat funneled in is from ill-gotten gains or means."

Bill: What if it's not? Because I know our team isn't doing that. Is every cabalist doing that?

Gideon: "No, because many cabalists simply have enormous fiat wealth through normal business practices. Most in-flows are from that, but a certain percentage carry with them this additional signature, or connotation, if you will.

One example are the crypto exchanges, which work with the cabal to create swings in the crypto markets that liquidate traders. Those funds are highly tainted, which the cabal prizes.

Cabalists who seem to take the extra step with fraud and manipulation in gaining fiat are actually moving up higher within the cabal hierarchy than other Sovereigns."

Bill: Now you said your guide said a few of us are in a good position, but none of us have so-called "ill-gotten" fiat. Can you still move up the hierarchy a lot without doing this kind of evil?

Gideon: "You can, because the cabal also values high amounts of USDR no matter where it came from. Some of us on our team are, as my guide said, within a lower range of a certain level or tier within the cabal that could allow us some influence.

We are not, however, within some of the higher tiers where we would have a lot more influence.

I would never suggest or approve of anyone on our team acquiring any fiat through ill-gotten means, of course, but I would say we may need to focus so that we have at least one or two accounts at a certain level of USDR that puts us in a better position. This is going to be a priority, because my guide said we do need at least a handful of accounts that reach a higher level within the hierarchy.

We will have to work harder than, for example, some of Trump's family, who just stole money through fraud through Trump coin. We will not use those means under any circumstances."

Bill: The whistle blowers have given us a ton of insight into this hierarchy, and what it's based on, and everything we've gathered it's based on USDR. The incredible part is you think USDR will carry over into the next life, or after life, or this astral plane. This is where things get so crazy, people might just stop reading right here, so I don't want to get too into it.

Gideon: "When I speak of these things, I want to preface that I am reporting things the cabal believes.

The cabal believes in God and in Satan. The cabal believes in the afterlife. The cabal believes in interacting with demonic spirits. The cabal believes in telekinesis, remote viewing and telepathy. The cabal believes in the soul and that there are multiple dimensions beyond this one. The cabal believes in deep spiritual fundamentals that govern our lives and our world.

That is what the cabal believes. I am not declaring these things, it is what the cabal actually believes."

Bill: Well, I think the cabal wants to use religion to manipulate but also use materialism and atheism to manipulate, too. They use both. The people in denial about spirituality, I think they're totally deceived.

Gideon: "The evidence for spirituality and the afterlife, and even the soul, is actually quite well-established and there is evidence for it, even scientific evidence. Our world is not a 3D inanimate space of nothingness. We are spiritual beings and there is a God, a one true Creator.

Our world is a part of a larger whole, a structure of different planes that exist within a vibrational habitat, if you will. We as humans simply cannot see beyond the veil, so we do not believe it is even there, and the cabal has suppressed technology that would allow us to access it, as well."

Bill: Now, if USDR can be used in the afterlife, how does that work?

Gideon: "The record of what USDR we have in this life will be carried over to the next. This is what the cabal is setting up. This is one of their most important, ambitious goals. That is what they want for themselves, and they are very excited about it, I am told, that is why there has been a flurry of financial crimes and the markets are, as you say, de-coupled from reality. The cabal is in a frenzy to use fiat to gain USDR, before the time to do so ends, and it will end.

Something else should be understood, too, and that is that the astral plane itself is a cabal-controlled area. It is similar to Earth, too. In fact, it overlays Earth. It feels material when you are there, or your soul is there. People eat, though they do not have to. There is some type or money or barter, and this is why the cabal is upgrading to USDR, to establish the same universal currency there, too. There is a control structure in place, more than here."

Bill: I think it's where the demonic entities come from, that's my belief. What about Heaven? What about transcending this astral plane? How do we get out of it, or beyond it?

Gideon: "There is a control grid in place, a net that captures souls. This may sound like science fiction. I would encourage readers to research and explore this, because the evidence is overwhelming. So, to find God, we must get past the astral plane, which is like another Earth, but even more controlled. But, because we have fewer limitations physically there, our souls can move out of there if we are spiritually strong enough and eventually reach God.

Now, the cabal is trying to prevent this. This links into the vaccines, transhumanism, Digital IDs, Starlink, Obsidian and the nano dust. The cabal is trying to use all of those measures to capture the soul, to prevent the soul from escaping the astral plane after death, and worse, actually trapping the soul within this realm, this world, so it cannot even ascend at all.

Some of the experiments and plans are beyond description in terms of how terrifying they are, such as placing or trapping souls within computers or video games. It sounds like science fiction, but it is not."

Bill: I'm typing and not seeing a reaction, are you there?

[Comms interrupted for 10 minutes]

Bill: Ok, the connection is good. What happened?

Gideon: "I had to switch to a new encrypted network, one of the ports was being probed. Very concerning, but we were not at risk, they would not be able to see what we previously wrote, only anything we continued to speak about. I prevented that."

Bill: That's the second time that's happened this week, and the past couple months it looked like we put a stop to it. How secure are things for us right now do you think?

Gideon: "Secure, because I have set things up so I can see when they try to capture our data. I can stop it immediately. They will not be able to find this new channel for a few days, probably, so we can speak without issue for now."

Bill: Alright, good. We were talking about some pretty incredible spiritual things, I'll try to stay on that topic. Something in my notes here is I noticed this Christian who's very famous for predicting Trump's assassination, his name is Brandon Biggs (Video critical of him: "New and Dangerous False Prophet"). He recently predicted the Pope would be Asian, and since the Pope isn't Asian at all, not even slightly, he's been trying to defend his wrong prediction. It made me think how completely deceived people must be to put so much faith in this guy. I noticed comments on his channel are all praising him. To me, he's either a false prophet or probably channeling demons. What do you think?

Gideon: "I am aware of who he is, but I was not aware of his recent failed prediction. I would need to review all of that to give a more informed opinion."

Bill: I want to contrast that with you. You're not a psychic at all, or channeling, your predictions are based on real-world intel, your background in the intelligence community and your excellent contacts. Sometimes you've been wrong, too, but unlike this guy you don't say a bunch of things back-tracking and trying to defend yourself.

Gideon: "I have been wrong."

Bill: Just seeing that many Christians utterly praising this guy in the comments of his videos, it made me realize how far down the line we are, how hopeless it is because people have zero discernment. We've tried to do a little more outreach recently, and while it's made some difference, we're not even close to the power and size of these huge gatekeeper channels. It's overwhelming how much control they have, the public is totally hypnotized, and I'm talking about the so-called "awake" people and Trump voters. I'm not even getting into the vaccinated-types who watch network news. People are really, really deep in the brainwashing, I forget sometimes how bad it is and how alone we really are.

Gideon: "You are not wrong. The actual numbers are grim, in terms of how many souls the cabal has captured already."

Bill: I'm hesitant to bring this up, but I'm just going to do it for the Intel Drop. We spoke about a very interesting video featuring Peggy Kane, you told me I needed to watch it, all of it, as it's quite long. I did. It's fascinating. Why is it so important?

Gideon: "My guide directed me to watch it first. She said it contains some of the closest truth available, but it is not the full truth. She said Peggy Kane not only was a spirit of utter truthfulness and sincerity, but she was also silenced for the information she brought forward.

Her and her information completely disappeared from the web many years ago, never to be seen or heard from again. My guide said the information is too disturbing for most to accept. I would agree."

Bill: Well, that makes three of us! I couldn't stomach some of it, but it certainly had a ring of truth to it. She talks a lot about reverse speech, which I've always thought was a legitimate science. That gave me confidence in her, as did the fact she used EVP, electronic voice phenomena. So, she is using two science-based methods, I felt.

Gideon: "She was, yes, and by using them together, which no one had ever done, she found hidden truths."

Bill: Now you said something interesting, you said all of these research methods are available to us, but people rarely use them, or they don't use them in the right way, but that she did. What do you mean? I mean, why don't they?

Gideon: "Because we are mentally and spiritually repressed from following through on them. It is the same reason no one seems to be able to create a Kozyrev Mirror, even though the technical aspects needed are rather easily achievable. No one seems to be able to do it. Why can they not do it? Yet, many other technical projects are explored all of the time."

Bill: It's like a resistance inside of us that tells us not to do something?

Gideon: "Correct, and that is the influence of demonic energy, which is much more powerful than we realize. We are pushed and directed in life, less so to do things, but more so not to do things, Bill, not to act."

Bill: I see, incredible. Almost like an apathy. I see apathy everywhere, no will to do anything but play along with the crowd.

Gideon: "The internal drive to act, which Peggy Kane had in spades, is actively repressed by extra-dimensional spirits. They look for and stop those who can undo the entire veil and deception. She was finally stopped."

Bill: Do you think they've acted against us, I mean, our team and what we're trying to do to stop Obsidian?

Gideon: "I do believe they have. My guide told me they have."

Bill: Does that explain why our team is as small as it is, why we didn't do more? Why it's taken us this long to finally realize we needed to do more, to have a bigger team?

Gideon: "I do wonder that, I do question my own decision-making. I rejected too many applicants. I made mistakes. I am now trying to correct course. My guide said I have been influenced, as were you."

Bill: How do we fight this?

Gideon: "Awareness. Being acutely aware of our internal dialogue, our internal motivations, questioning everything going on inside of us at any given moment. We have to be hyper-vigilant. My guide said things will push us in a direction and we will believe it is us making that decision, but instead it is something else trying to push us.

I also cannot over-state how dark evil really is, the depths of evil are too terrifying to ponder. When someone says Netanyahu is 'evil' for doing this or that, they do not truly know, but I can tell you, being in a room with that man it would be as though you are in a room with Satan himself. You would feel a darkness beyond belief.

There are many people with this darkness in them, but those flashes of darkness are often cloaked and hidden behind lies, deception. You must watch closely. You must trust yourself to avoid those people, for they are demonically possessed."

Bill: I've known some horrible, awful people. No question in my mind demonic possession is real. It goes back to prayer, I think, and relying on God, doesn't it? To help is separate ourselves from this?

Gideon: "It does, but it also requires specificity. Not simply asking God to do the work for us. Our own will must act against these dark influences with God's help. Too many people, certainly Christians, are prone to simply 'giving it up to God' and doing nothing, and the real Bible, the true scripture, the one not tainted by the cabal and the Devil, never instructed that. God wants us to act with Him, not just let Him do everything for us."

Bill: I agree. Back to Peggy Kane and the video, I mean, it's hard to accept, but it has the ring of truth. She did the work behind it, the science. I guess we'd need to replicate that, we would need to use reverse speech the way she did, and use EVP, to see. Am I correct?

Gideon: "To prove it, yes. We can still glean from her information insights and compare it to countless other data points. She does confirm things I have been told, too, especially about the afterlife. She confirms some kind of money is used in this astral plane we go to, which I have been told by multiple sources. She confirms the astral plane is a dystopian police state. She confirms it is similar to Earth, but not quite the same, as it is in a different vibrational field of existence, but not so divergent that it would look drastically different."

Bill: Alright, what do your sources say about some of this extreme information? I mean, your ex-intel guys, the guys who spent their lives in the field or seeing classified information. What do they say about this?

Gideon: "I have not explored it with all of them. Some would laugh me out of the room, others would refuse to discuss it. But one did confirm it. He has been spooked by other things he knows, which ties into all of it. He says 2030 is the most key and important date in human history, and that if we do not either stop this or avoid it, we will get taken up into what he calls the 'meta-net' or this inescapable realm.

He said there is more than our eyes can see going on. He said Starlink is a big part of it, but there is much more. He said how we die is going to be a very, very big thing in the future. He said look at the euthanasia clinics. Watch them closely. He said the cabal has a plan for people that is so deceptive people will willingly walk into their own deaths and suicides because they will be so convinced of certain promises to come."

Bill: I know I will never, ever, ever be convinced of something like that. But, I see the way the world is, and if the Pope says it, people will do it. Or if Trump says it, they will do it. Won't they?

Gideon: "They will."

Bill: I'm going to bring this to a close, but I'm really compelled right now to say a prayer. This information is really upsetting to me. The evil is so overwhelming, and I feel we're just a small speck compared to the power of the cabal, so I want to end with a prayer, if that's alright.

Gideon: "Please, Bill, go on."

Bill: I pray that our team is bathed in the light of our Lord and Creator, and that in the name of Jesus Christ, we will fight with every inch of our being to stop this evil, to stop Obsidian, to stop every effort by the cabal to prevent us in our mission. I pray for the safety of everyone on our team. I pray more people who want to fight this will join us. I pray our mission will be completed with Your will and Your blessing, amen.

Gideon: "Amen."

Bill: I'll let you say a few words and we'll get this to Michael.

Gideon: "We are considering making our next The Cosmic Rules Are About To Change entry private, for our team only, where we will post it on the password-protected page. My guide also wishes to be involved in some way, to communicate with our team, possibly trough that.

So, these are goals I feel strongly about. There are things we cannot say publicly, so I want to make sure they are shared with our team.

My guide also wanted to impart that she believes our team is made up of some of the strongest souls. While she has not met them personally or spoken to them, she knows them through me and you and she is impressed with what I have told her about our team. She wanted to pass along her thanks for helping us, and I wish to, as well."

Bill: Good, I want all that to happen. I'll let you go, and I hope we talk again soon.

Gideon: "Bill, God bless."

Bill: God bless.
